

This development is at the foothills of one of the tallest mountains in the Caribbean. There are paths that lead to the top of the mountain behind the development.

The development is elevated higher than any citizenship project in St. Kitts. At about 900 feet above sea level, you will not have to use air conditioning.

There will be hip art studios in the village of the development with breathtaking views of the Caribbean.

A lot of the homes will have a combination of stone and quality lumber.

This development has homes from just under 800 square feet to 6000 square feet.

Prices range from 405,000 - 4,000,000 USD.
