

This development will be the only development that is right across from the famous Ross Vet School and just down the street from a Medical School. These two schools will keep your rental full all the time unless you want to stay in it for your own use.

All condos will be either one or two bedroom units starting at 425,000 USD and will have great views of the Caribbean.

There will be a fitness center, nice lap pool, art museum, sports bar and shuttle service in the complex and just down the street from the Brimstone Fortress which is a world renowned historical site built by slaves in the 1600's.
